

Invitation to the 2012 Edmonton Kendo Club Seminar: “Lifelong Kendo”

The Edmonton Kendo Club is pleased to announce it will be hosting a kendo seminar September 21-23, 2012. The guest instructors for the seminar will be Okusa sensei from the Simon Fraser University Kendo Club and D'Orangeville sensei from the McGill University Kendo Club.

Please contact info@eknc.org to confirm registration for the seminar. It is preferable if members register together by their club rather than individually.

Tentative Itinerary

Friday, September 21

Edmonton Japanese Community Association - 6750 88th Street NW
6:30pm-9pm Godokeiko

Saturday, September 22

Casa Centre (St. Agnes School) - 10645 63rd Avenue NW
9am-12pm Seminar
12pm-1pm Lunch
1pm-5pm Seminar

Edmonton Japanese Community Association - 6750 88th Street NW
7pm Catered Dinner

Sunday, September 23

Ukrainian National Federation Hall - 10629 98th Street NW
9am-1pm Seminar

Lunch will be provided on Saturday to all members registered for the seminar. As well, on both Friday and Saturday evenings, the Edmonton Japanese Community Association hall will be licensed; everyone is welcome to remain after the keiko and dinner for socializing.

Seminar Costs

There is no seminar fee however everyone is encouraged to make a donation. Cost for the Saturday dinner would be approximately $20 per person. Donations and dinner fees will be collected on Saturday morning.

Hotel Accommodations

Those looking for a place to stay can make hotel reservations with the Chateau Nova Hotel (<http://www.chateaunovahoteledmonton.ca/>). A standard room with two queen beds would cost $109 per night by booking under the reservation code "746". Only a select number of rooms are available so please book early if you intend to stay here!

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the club at info@eknc.org

Sincerely,

Stephen Hladky
Edmonton Kendo Club past-president